Lady Wolves closer to clinching No. 1 seed

AG RICHARDSON
breaks RBI record

CARA BISWELL
tosses two victories

Wearing the title of Defending National Champions is a heavy load for any softball team. Co-Lin's Lady Wolves have proudly carried the NJCAA Division II National Champs banner through the 2024 season and are on the verge of clinching first place in the MACCC race.

Saturday's home date with East Mississippi also served as Co-Lin's Sophomore Day. Parents and family members smiled with pride as their daughters were recognized in a ceremony held prior to the twinbill. The talented list of nine athletes lined up across the infield with their families, posing for photos. It was a special moment. The partisan crowd cheered and applauded their favorites.

The Co-Lin sophomores include Madison Moak (Brookhaven), Zykeria Cole (Magee), Leia Phillips (Philadelphia), Laney Waguespack (Bayou Gauche, LA), Kat Case (Monticello), Cara Biswell (Brandon), Sarah Grace Smith (Crystal Springs), Bailee Goodson (Brookhaven) and Abby Grace Richardson (Brookhaven).

After shutting out East Mississippi 11-0 and 5-0, Co-Lin's record stands at 35-3 overall and 22-1 in the conference. Coach Meleah Brown-Howard's Lady Wolves are three games ahead of their closest challengers: Jones, Hinds and Pearl River. Two twinbills, both on the road, remain on the schedule: at Hinds Wednesday and at Coahoma Saturday.

Lady Wolves rip Southwest

Co-Lin continued to dominate the ancient rivalry on the softball field as the Lady Wolves howled to 8-2 and 19-0 Wednesday triumphs over Southwest's Lady Bears (15-21, 4-16).

In the opener, Biswell had her perfect game bid broken in the fifth when Erin Acey (Copiah Academy) sent a solo home run over the left field fence. Acey also drove in Southwest's second run with a 2-out single, scoring Maggie Wilks (Columbia) who was hit by a pitch.

Biswell (14-3) struck out six batters and did not issue a base on balls.

"My team is doing good and I felt good out there today," said Biswell. "My curve was working for me today."

Richardson, a Mississippi State signee as a catcher/shortstop, continues her assault on Co-Lin's softball reords. She chalked up her 129th RBI in the opener, surpassing the 2023 record of Maddie Weeks, now a junior on the Southern Miss squad.

A 3-run home run blast by Richardson cleared the right field fence and it came off Southwest starting pitcher Abbey Pevey (Columbia) in the fifth. It gave Richardson 41 career homers.

Obviously, Richardson's overall strength has increased since her high school days at Brookhaven Academy. She credited Co-Lin strength and conditioning coach Christian Brown with her improvement.

"Mister Christian really works us hard," in the offseason. Asked about her home run, Richardson smiled and said, "I was waiting on that pitch."

Emeri Warren (Sebastopol), a freshman leftfielder who played for Leake Academy, accounted for a double and two singles in the victory. Moak had two singles and two RBIs.

In Game Two, freshman Taylor Efferson (Holden LA) launched a pair of towering home runs, one of them bouncing off the big scoreboard behind the left-center field fence. Moak led off the bottom of the first with a solo homer. Cole and Efferson also homered in the first frame.

Efferson's scoreboard-denting, 3-run homer increased Co-Lin's lead to 9-0 in the second inning.

The Lady Wolves plated six runs in the third as Goodson led off with a double to begin the parade. They led 15-zip and three Southwest pitchers couldn't stop the 16-hit attack.

Freshman Emily Richarde (Lakeland, TN) raised her pitching record to 6-0. In three scoreless and hitless innings. She struck out three batters.

Co-Lin's Sophomore Day was concluded with a shutout sweep of East Mississippi's Lady Lions (13-25, 5-19) as the Lady Wolves (35-3, 22-1) howled 11-0 and 5-0.

Biswell tossed a 2-hitter in the opener. She struck out four batters and walked one.

The Lady Wolves chalked up 11 hits in the opener. Cole's homer and three RBIs paced the attack. Moak, Richardson and Ainsworth each had a double and a single.

In Game Two, pitcher Emily Richarde (7-0) remained unbeaten. She allowed two hits, walked one and fanned two.

Co-Lin accounted for seven hits. Richardson hit her 42nd career homer. Efferson singled and doubled.

CL hunts baseball playoffs

Meanwhile, the Co-Lin baseball team is battling for a berth in the state playoffs. The Wolves (25-23, 12-12) want to be among the nine teams reaching the playoffs. The top five will host opening round double-headers.

Pearl River currently stands atop the conference race, followed by East Central Northwest and Jones.

Co-Lin played last Saturday at East Mississippi and lost the 9-inning opener 10-7. Game Two was postponed until Sunday afternoon due to the weather but the Wolves enjoyed a 3-2 win at Scooba. The Lions (29-18, 15-11) hope to close out their regular season with a twinbill sweep against East Central.

Co-Lin will host the Hinds Eagles Wednesday for a conference twinbill, starting at 3 p.m. on Sullivan Field. They'll entertain Coahoma Saturday for their final regular season action.

The Wolves were fresh from a Wednesday sweep of the Southwest Bears, winning 11-5 and 5-4 at Summit. It marked the much-anticipated revival of the Coca-Cola Challenge which was bypassed for three years because of COVID and coaching changes at both schools.

Second-year head coach Adam Chamblee said he was pleased with his Co-Lin team's performance versus Southwest. "I thought our offense was productive. We swung it (bats) really well against some tough Southwest arms (pitchers). We had a good approach."

In Game One, a designated 9-inning affair, it was a seesaw battle between the archrivals. The Bears took a 3-1 lead in the bottom of the third but Co-Lin went ahead 5-3 in the seventh on a 2-run homer by Isaac McClenty (Ridgeland).

Doubles by McClenty and Brentley Berry (Magee) produced runs in the ninth. The Wolves took an 11-3 lead.

Co-Lin finished with 15 hits. Tucker Jones (Brandon) led the way with three hits. Collecting two hits apiece were Hagan Coumbe (Utica), JD Weed (Terry), Sawyer Dunn (Magee), Brayden Bankston (Terry) and McClenty.

On the mound, Lucas Harrington (Youngstown, LA) started for Co-Lin and went four innings. He gave up three runs on two hits. He walked six batters and fanned three.

Freshman southpaw Judson Griffin (Brookhaven) replaced Harrington and notched the victory. Griffin allowed one hit in four innings of relief. He struck out one batter and walked one.

"Judson did a good job out of the bullpen," said Chamblee. "He only walked one batter and gave up one hit."

Southwest (20-32, 8-16) got a 2-run homer from Colson Thompson (Clarkdale) in the bottom of the ninth, off Co-Lin relief pitcher Jayden Duncan (Foxworth).

"We never want to lose but hats off to that group (Wolves) for beating us in those two games," said Southwest head coach Jack Edmonson, "We had our best guys (pitchers) going and they beat them."

In Game Two, Sawyer Dunn's RBI single pushed the Co-Lin lead to 5-2 before the Bears rallied. The Wolves broke a 2-2 deadlock in the third as Jones sent Berry home on a bunt single and an error. Weed provided an RBI double and it was 4-2.

Jones had two of Co-Lin's six hits.

Sophomore pitcher Coby Gollott (Ocean Springs) threw a complete game and raised his record to 5-4. He allowed four runs on five hits, fanning seven and walking three.

Southwest ace Luke Lirette (Houma, LA) went 6.1 innings. He struck out seven batters, walked four and allowed five hits.

Thompson and Tyler Otts (Summit) led the Bears with two hits apiece.

Lions prevail in opener

The Lions scored 10 runs on seven hits in the opener. Co-Lin collected 13 hits in the loss. The Wolves rebounded and beat the hosts 3-2 Sunday afternoon.

In Game One, a triple and a pair of singles by Weed drove in two Co-Lin runs. Coumbe doubled home two more runs.

On the mound, Andin Bolen (4-1), a sophomore southpaw from Lucedale, started for Co-Lin and tossed six innings, giving up seven runs on five hits. He struck out eight batters and walked six.

Griffin threw two innings of relief and gave up three runs on two hits. He fanned three batters.

Cooper Garrison (6-3) went 7 innings and notched the win. He gave up 11 hits and five runs, striking out seven batters.

In Sunday's game, Co-Lin scored the winning run in the top of the seventh. Braydon Evans (Florence) reached first base when he was hit by a pitch. Coach Chamblee inserted McClenty as a pinch runner and he advanced to second base on a throw-away pickoff attempt at first base. Reise Thomas (Florence) beat out an infield single to shortstop and Co-Lin capitalized as McClenty rounded third base and scored on the same play.

McKenzie's RBI double sparked Co-Lin's 6-hit offensive. Evans also had an RBI.

On the mound, Co-Lin sophomore pitcher Connor Pittman (Waynesborro) and Gollott combined on a 3-hitter. Pittman (8 K, 5 BB) gave up three hits and two runs in five innings. Gollott (1 K, 1 BB) held the Lions hitless in two innings of relief.

SIGNS KIDS MAY HAVE ALLERGIES

have allergies should discuss their concerns with a doctor for an accurate and complete diagnosis. Allergists typically use skin testing to confirm allergies. Liquid-form extracts of allergens are placed on the top layer of the skin through a pricking device, says Childrens Hospital. The skin will turn red where the test was applied if an allergen causes a reaction. Skin testing is usually faster than blood tests.

Treatment for allergies tends to involve avoiding common triggers. Immunotherapy and certain medications also may be advised. Always consult with the child's pediatrician before administering any over-the-counter allergy medications.

Welcoming a child into the world is an exciting time for parents. However, new parents often lament that there is no guidebook to caring for and raising children. This becomes even more apparent when parents must confront illnesses that affect their children. It can be disconcerting when a child is affected by illness and parents feel helpless. Such feelings may arise when children's allergies first present.

Just like adults, children can be sensitive to allergens in their foods or their environments. Cedars-Sinai says allergies affect the immune system. Allergic reactions occur when the immune system reacts to something generally harmless and thinks it is a danger. So the body then attacks the allergen with antibodies, causing a number of reactions in the body.

The U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention says nearly one in five children has a seasonal allergy, more than 10 percent have eczema, and nearly 6 percent have a food allergy. Food Allergy Canada says almost 600,000 Canadian children under age 18 have food allergies.

Children may experience allergies differently than adults. The American College of Allergy, Asthma and Immunology says some of the more common allergy symptoms in children include:

- Skin rashes or hives (atopic dermatitis or eczema)
- Difficulty breathing
- Sneezing, coughing, a runny nose or itchy eyes
- Stomach upset
- Chronic nasal congestion
- Ear infections, since allergies can lead to inflammation in the ear and may cause fluid accumulation
- Itching in ears or the roof of the mouth

- Red, itchy, watery eyes

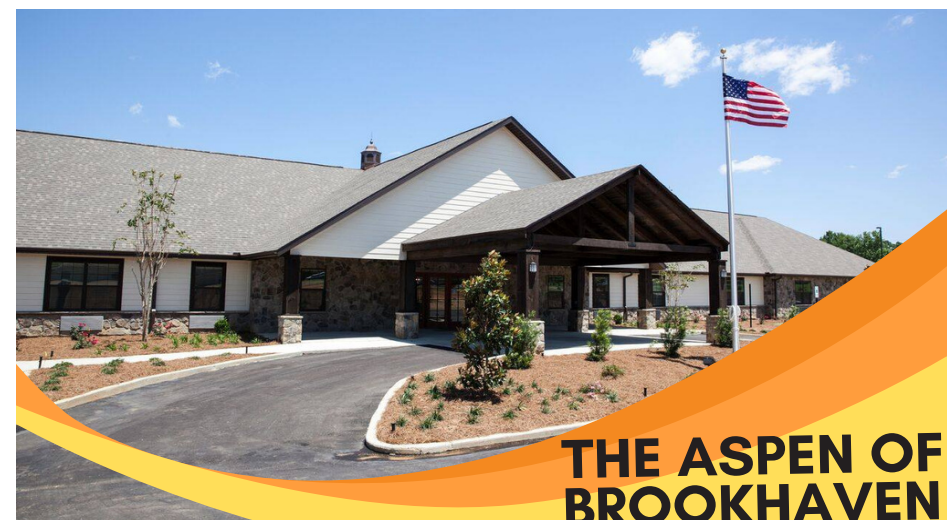

- A severe, life-threatening allergic reaction known as anaphylaxis

Allergies can be caused by a number of things. The most common triggers are tree, grass and weed pollens, according to Cedars-Sinai. Mold, dust mites, animal dander, bee stings, pests like roaches and mice, and foods also cause allergies. Children also may be allergic to medicines, which can be scary, since parents may not have any prior warning of an allergic reaction to a new medication.

Allergies can affect anyone, and parents who suffer from their own allergies may have children who also have allergies. Doctors are not sure why allergies tend to run in families. Also, allergic symptoms can happen slowly over time. Parents who suspect their children may
